

Marco Iannuzzi – Insight

“Netria Corp has been fantastic. I’ve always gotten fast response and have always done my clientele right. Jeff Pitcher is the person I go to for everything that I can’t find. He’s awesome and glad that Netria Corp is a company that I can go to in order to source the products for my clients.”

Mark Cooridon – Insight

“Netria is the source for all of the items that your client needs that can't be sourced through the traditional channel. The service that Jeff provides is exceptional and allows us to be a truly one stop shop for our clients.”

Reed Hinko – Insight

“Partnering with Netria allows our organization to enhance our service delivery capabilities we extend to our customers. The account teams at Netria consistently drive value by providing an Exemplary level of support and finding innovative way to streamline business and transaction- all processes.”

Chris Palliser- World Wide Technology, Inc.

“Netria was instrumental in helping WWT win a short-fused opportunity for NETCOM in SWA. With the assistance of Eric and team, we closed the deal and built a stronger partnership for future business together.”

Randy McCone – Insight

“Jeff and the whole team at Netria are always extremely responsive and helpful. They are a huge help when I need to find prices and products quickly and easily. The market I work in is extremely demanding and they are an invaluable asset.”

Richard Klein – Insight

“Netria provides great customer service along with great pricing, even on those hard to find items. Timely deliveries even on large and bulk shipments. Everyone who I have worked with at Netria in all different departments has been amazing. We will continue to do business with this company for many more years to come.”

Ben Long- World Wide Technology

“Thank you for replying quickly and accurately on our quote requests consisting of a wide range of hard to find and difficult to procure products. My team and my customer are very grateful.”

Ashley Welton- World Wide Technology

Working with Netria has allowed us to quote opportunities for our customers that we would have otherwise had to turn down. Eric is quick to respond and is always willing to help; I recommend reaching out anytime you’re having trouble tracking down a product or have questions regarding Netria’s capabilities.”
